DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendment filed 4/22/04 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132 because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132 states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: Figure 6, the specification does not support non-overlapping device having a linear (non-relaxed) configuration within a delivery catheter as shown in the new drawings, Figure 6. Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-8 and 10-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ferrera et al. (6 638 291). Ferrera et al. disclose a vaso-occlusive device comprising: a linear strand wound into a stable, three-dimensional relaxed configuration comprising a plurality of non-overlapping loops as claimed (see figures 2-3B), a deployment tip and a mechanically detachable end adapted to attach and detach from a pusher (Figures 1- 3B), the Ferrera et al.'s vaso-occlusive device being made from the material as claimed (see cols. 6-7) and Ferrera disclose a method as claimed for making the vaso-occlusive device (see figures 13-18 and col. 9, line 64). Note: The introductory statement of intended use and all other functional statements have been carefully considered but are deemed not to impose any structural limitations on the claims distinguishable over the Ferrera et al.'s device which is capable of being used as claimed if one desires to do so.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ferrera et al. Although, Ferrera et al. do not disclose additional filamentary material attached to the vaso-occlusive member, it is known in the art that vaso-occlusive member includes additional filamentary material in order to optimize the occlusion. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to employ additional filamentary material into Ferrera et al.'s vaso-occlusive member in order to optimize the occlusion.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed 4/22/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Figures 2 and 3 of Ferrera et al. reference show non-overlapping loops in its relaxed configuration.

Applicant argues that there are at least four places in which the various loops seem to overlap in Ferrera devices as indicated by the arrow (see below).

Examiner disagrees since the device as claimed having the same overlapping configuration as indicated by the applicant shown in figure 2 above.

Therefore, Examiner considers a non-overlapping loops as the loops being joined together side by side to form a box or a cube shape without interlacing (see figures 2 and 3). Clearly, the loops as shown in figure 2 of Ferrera et al. reference are not interlacing.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
